

Church Community Development Coordinator Job.

West Road and Westley Community Church (soon to be known as Bridge Community Church) is a well-established Bible based evangelical church with two sites on the west side of Bury St Edmunds. As a church, we want to be part of the recovery of our town from Covid-19 and we have secured external funding to employ a part-time worker for 12-months to help in this process.

The role of this worker will be to coordinate the logistics of our poverty relief actions. Additionally, the postholder is to audit, research, and plan and secure external funding for the sustainability of our work in the future as well as strengthening our safeguarding systems during this time of transition.

For further information including job description, specification, application form, salary, hours and length of contract please contact the senior pastor Mr. David Oakley at the church office at 68 Queens Road, Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk IP33 3EW.
